GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Not so Bad as Reported.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Judge Lee of South Carolina has not been killed, but was obliged to seek shelter after the Sumter Republican meeting, as he was threatened on a trumped up charge. John Klinck, messenger clerk of the Democratic house, has been arrested charged with purloining letters addressed to employes and officials. Many letters, some containing checks in blank, which he had signed up and forged were found in his possession.

Fatal Explosion.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21.—A boiler in Dale's mill near McLeansboro, Ills., exploded this morning, killing two men and seriously injuring three others.

Tammany Nomination.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Tammany Hall has nominated Augustus Schell for mayor.

The Indian Troubles of the Middle West.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—At a late hour to-night the military headquarters received several interesting documents bearing on the Cheyenne Indian troubles. The first is from Gen. Pope, who reports that the force of cavalry is too small to attend to the seceders, and that all the military are poorly armed with carbines as against Indian rifles. The cavalry are kept busy at Forts Sill and Reno. He urges that more forces are essential to securing peace on the border. At the Cheyenne Indian agency he learns that there is an enormous deficiency in Indian supplies, as shown by the report of John D. Mills, agent at the Cheyenne and Arrapahoe agency. The latter says the primary cause of the Cheyennes leaving the reservation is that the daily ration [illegible] them of one and a half pounds [illegible], half a pound of flour or corn, and [illegible] pounds of coffee, eight pounds of sugar and three pounds of beans to 100 rations, have only been partially [illegible], supplies received being insufficient. [illegible] of the stock and aid in building houses [illegible] was promised has been afforded them. [illegible] cause of the defection was that they [illegible] to the manner of serving out their [illegible]. The northern Cheyennes first with[illegible] and all efforts to induce them to return [illegible] have been unavailing. Gen. Pope [illegible] that the Indian commissioner may, [illegible] light of these facts, find it necessary to [illegible] his view of affairs at the agency. Ben [illegible] old scout, reports that he has in[illegible] that fifteen Cheyennes have been [illegible] in encounters with the troops, and that [illegible] intend to work north and to propose peaceful settlement in Fort Kehoe, [illegible] this is not permitted will join Sitting Medals for Oregon Exhibitors.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The official list of [illegible] awarded at the Paris Exposition shows [illegible] gold medal presented to John Bidwell, of Chico, Cala., was for wheat weighing [illegible] per bushel. J. Cook & Co., and A. [illegible] of Portland, Oregon, received silver [illegible] for canned salmon. W. S. Plummer, [illegible], Oregon, received bronzed medal for [illegible] fruit and vegetables.

Congressional Indian Commission.

OMAHA, Oct. 21.—The joint congressional committee to investigate the feasibility of the transfer of the Indian bureau to the military department, left to-day for the west in a special car. The committee is composed of [illegible] Alvin Saunders, of Neb., chairman, [illegible] McCreery, A. R. Boone, of Ky., C. E. Hooker, of Miss., C. H. Stewart, of Minn., and Major Charles Flanagan, of Wash., secretary. Accompanying them are H. J. Caldwell and J. Newton Baker, phonographers, [illegible] Fannie B. Ward, of Wash., Mrs. Alvin [illegible], Mrs. A. Burley, Mrs. John A. Harbach, of Omaha, Miss Mary Boone, of Ky., [illegible] Wolf, Col. and C. E. Hooker, Jr. The committee will stop two days in Utah and [illegible] how the Mormons treat the Indians, and then proceed to San Francisco, where they will examine Gens Howard and Miles, and other officers and persons acquainted with Indian affairs on the Pacific coast.

A Southern Gentleman's Tribute to the North.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 21.—John F. House, in accepting the congressional nomination from Democrats of the sixth district, predicted that the next political contest would be free from sectional hatred. He said, "I cannot, fellow citizens, find it in my heart to indulge in feelings of malice towards the people of the north, when I witness their magnanimous and generous conduct toward the southern people. I feel like pulling off my hat and standing uncovered in their presence. Grander than the victory of Appomattox is the victory won by the people of the north in their noble and generous contributions to the stricken and suffering south. Upon that red field the south surrendered her sword; within the shadow of the dark wing of the pestilence, beside the new-made graves of her heroic sons and daughters, with bowed head and tearful eyes she extends her hand and surrenders her heart to the generous and magnanimous north; God's own hand has bridged the bloody chasm. Let not ambition or man seek to reopen the wounds and to rekindle the embers of national strife.

Schooner Wrecked—Two Lives Lost.

BOSTON, Oct. 21.—The schooner Moss Glen, from St. John, N. B., for New York, became a total wreck in the gale of October 12th. During the night one seaman and steward were washed overboard. The captain, mate and remaining seamen lashed themselves to the mizzen chain, and after drifting four days without food or water were picked up.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Reported Tariff Reduction on French Wines.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—With reference to what has been generally styled the "proposed commercial treaty with France," threatening California interests by a reduction of fifty per cent. of the present rate of duty on French wines and spirits, it can be stated on the best possible authority that no official overture or initiative has been taken by the French government for a new commercial treaty with this country, nor has any been taken by our government. The whole agitation of the subject proceeds merely from outside pressure, and has not in any degree reached official circles, so far as is known to our department of state. It may be added that when the general public is apprised of any such movement, the difficulty of negotiating a treaty will be immeasurably increased.

Mining Patents.

Patents have been issued for the following mining claims in California: Nevada county, Marks Dellarback, consolidated gravel mine; Derby Hill Company, Downie Placer; James Malone, placer; William Terran and others, Buena Vista, blue gravel.

Arizona—Edwin N. Fish, Enterprise lode.

Utah—Hezekiah McCoy and others, Silver Dipper lode; Wm. W. C. Hiff, coal mine No. thirty-one.

Montana—Robert Hale, San Jose lode; [illegible] Dahler and others, Harlem Iron Rod, Clipper and Glenn's Falls lodes; Jno. Trenor, Roderick Leggot and James Ryan, each placer. The Commissioner of the general land office announces a ruling that in all cases end lines of surveys of lode claims must be parallel.

Honor to the Dead Admiral.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The secretary of the navy to-day issued an order announcing the death of Rear Admiral Hiram Paulding, in which he speaks of the life and services of the deceased, and directs that on the day of the receipt of the order the flags of the navy yards and stations and of all ships of war in commission will be kept at half mast from sunrise until sunset, and 13 minute guns be fired at noon from all navy yards.

Republican Meeting Captured by Red Shirts.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The Journal's Washington special says the Charleston News and Courier of yesterday contains an account of an attempt to capture a Republican meeting at Lawtonville, S. C., on Friday last by Democratic red shirts, showing conclusively that the Democrats have no fear of the recent order issued by Attorney-General Devens, but feel strong enough to carry their policy of bulldosing successfully through to the day of election. A meeting was called by the Republicans to hear Representative Smalls, Republican candidate for re-election to congress, and the manner of its capture is thus told by a dispatch in the News and Courier: "This morning negroes began pouring in, attired in their recently acquired Radical uniform of blue shirts, several mounted clubs and other clubs on foot, embracing large numbers, being included. Fully 2,000 men, women and children were gathered, when some 800 red shirts galloped in, captured the meeting and proceeded to run on in a division time schedule. Rousing Democratic speeches were made. Smalls failed to appear.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

Sir Stafford Northcote Makes a Speech.

LONDON, Oct 21.—Sir Stafford Northcote, speaking at Birmingham, admitted the depression in trade and the consequent loss of elasticity of revenue. Nevertheless he did not anticipate the necessity of asking of the country renewed sacrifices. He condemned over-anxiety respecting the fulfillment of the provisions of the treaty of Berlin. An important moment would be the next period of complete Russian evacuation. He was convinced that the powers would not suffer the treaty of Berlin, which cost so much, to be set aside. The English government's policy would be one of firmness, prudence and moderation, and they would watch over the interests of England's Indian empire. Government would not have the heart of England with them if it thought the interests of England were limited to these small islands, meaning Great Britain and Ireland. One great principle of their policy is the preservation of the Ottoman empire, and they intended to introduce national improvement in Asiatic Turkey. He then defended the acquisition of Cyprus, which he said was vindicated by the government's policy respecting Egypt. Concerning Afghanistan the chancellor reiterated the statements made by Mr. Cross, home secretary, at Southport, adding that the government will not allow its attention to be distracted from the execution of the Berlin treaty.

The Socialist Bill Passed and the Reichstag Adjourned.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—The reichstag to-day adopted the socialist bill, 221 against 149. Both sections of conservatives and national liberals, with some independent liberals, voted for the bill. Prince Bismarck then read a message closing the reichstag. He said that the government, armed with this measure, would make a determined effort to cure the prevalent disease. If they were not able to succeed in two and a half years, the government hoped to obtain further concessions.

German Conscription Increased.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Reports come from several sources that the annual military conscription in Germany is to be increased by 20,000 men, but that the addition is without political significance, being merely the consequence of an increase in population.

Fenian Convict Liberated.

The Fenian convict Clancy, who was sentenced in 1867, has been liberated.

The Afghan Embassy.

The Ruski Mir publishes a letter from Tashkend which reports that the Afghan embassy will proceed to St. Petersburg.

Von Beust's Appointment.

A correspondent at Berlin insists, despite denials, that Count VonBeust's appointment as Austrian ambassador at Paris is directed against Germany; and declares that Count Andrassy was obliged to assent thereto by court influence, and that his position is shaken.

The Ameer wants to Compromise.

A special from Darjeeling says it is reported with considerable show of probability that the ameer of Afghanistan is strenuously endeavoring to effect a compromise.

Dyke Burst in Egypt.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 21.—A dyke on the Damietta branch of the Nile has burst. It is impossible to repair it. Ten thousand men are engaged in building a new one. Amount of damage unknown.

Fatal Railway Accident.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A disastrous railway collision occurred yesterday at Pontipridd. Twelve persons are reported killed and forty seriously wounded. Several had limbs amputated and more deaths are expected.

England, France and Austria.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The first lord of admiralty leaves Paris to-morrow for Cyprus. Negotiations are said to be pending between Austria, France and England with the object of securing common treatment of all European questions as a counterpoise to Russia, and to substitute for the kaiser bund an entente between France, England and Austria. Count Von Beust's appointment as ambassador to France is believed to be connected with this project.

Prizes Awarded.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The distribution of exhibition prizes took place to day. President MacMahon opened the ceremony.

That Bill.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—The federal council has given its assent to the socialist bill, and the early promulgation of the bill as a law of the empire is expected.

Conscription Increase Denied.

The National Gazette declared the report of the increase of military conscription by 20,000 men wholly untrue.

Another Tumble.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—James Morton & Co., one of the firms largely indebted to the City of Glasgow Bank, have placed their books in the hands of accountants. Liabilities estimated at from two to two and a half millions of pounds.

The Defaulting Bank Directors.

GLASGOW, Oct. 21.—The directors of the City of Glasgow Bank, arrested on a charge of fraud, were remanded till to-morrow. Of the directors, W. E. Taylor is ex-town collector of Glasgow, member of the school board and partner in a large grain-dealing firm in the west of Scotland. Ingles is a landed proprietor in the east of Scotland. Louis Potter is a member of a large shipping firm in Glasgow. Wright is a member of an East Indian firm in London and Glasgow. Robt. Salmond was manager of the bank when it was stopped in 1857. Stewart is an Edinburgh merchant. The arrests created a great sensation, but meet with general approval.

French Honors for Americans.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The following Americans have received decorations of the legion of honor: Commissioner General Richard C. McCormick, who is made commander; Prof. F. A. P. Barnard and Wm. W. Story, who are made officers; Auguste H. Girard, secretary to the commissioner general; Henry Pettit engineer and architect, on the commissioner general's staff; Thomas R. Pickering, superintendent of the machinery section; Lieut. Benj. A. Buckingham, U. S. naval attache; John D. Philbrick, superintendent of the educational section and D. Maitland Armstrong, superintendent of the fine arts section. Prof. Andrew D. White, LL. D., juror; Prof Wm. P. Blake, juror, and Prof. Edward H. Knight, LL. D., juror, are made jurors. Cyrus H. McCormick and Walter A. Wood, who were in 1867 made chevaliers, have been raised to officers. Thomas A. Edison and Elisha Gray, Chicago, were made chevaliers.

Arrested for Conspiracy.

MADRID, Oct. 21.—Senor Pi y Margell has been arrested and sent to Seville, charged with complicity in the recent republican conspiracy.

False Report Corrected.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A correspondent at Constantinople says that the whole story of an Afghan envoy to the Porte is untrue. No such person is here.

CANADA.

More Canadian Appointments.

MONTREAL, Oct. 21.—The following additional appointments have been made to the new cabinet and it is now complete: Hon. McKenzie Bowell, minister of customs; Hon. Alexander Campbell, receiver general; Hon. J. C. Aikens, secretary of state; Hon. L. F. Baley, minister of inland revenue; Hon. J. C. Pope, minister of marine and fisheries.

NOVA SCOTIA.

A Shipwreck.

HALIFAX, Oct. 21.—The steamer Tenzie, from Montreal with a full cargo, went ashore last night while entering the North Sydney harbor in a fog and high wind. A part of the cargo will be saved. The vessel supposed to be a total wreck.

The Appropriations.

The general appropriation bill, as passed by both houses, makes appropriations for the next two years which may be summarized as follows:

Executive fund	$19,400 00
General fund	32,960 00
Fugitive fund	2,000 00

Total	$322,754 50

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

One Chinaman Kills Another.

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 21.—A shooting scrape occurred yesterday afternoon in this city between two Chinamen, Ah Fook and Ah Tune, resulting in immediate death to Ah Fook and seriously wounding Ah Tune, who now lies in the city prison in a critical condition. The shooting, so far as learned, is about a Chinawoman. Two other Chinamen are under arrest for complicity in the murder.

A White Man Murdered by a Chinaman.

GONZALES, Cal., Oct. 21.—At the ranch of Clough & Fisher, near Gonzales, a difficulty occurred between Mr. Dart, who drives J. D. Cohran's meat wagon, and a Chinese cook. When Dart arrived at Clough & Fisher's he was rather later than usual and the Chinaman said something to him about it in rather an insolent way and commenced swearing and calling him names. Dart knocked him down and got into his wagon to leave, when the Chinaman ran into the house, got a shotgun and came out and shot at Dart, the shot taking effect in his left side. The Chinaman then ran off into the river bottom, and has not been seen since, although a crowd was raised as soon as the news was brought in. There was nobody near the house when the shooting occurred. Dart is expected to die.

OREGON.

The fruit crop in Southern Oregon is abundant.

Competition has reduced the prices of passage between Coos bay and San Francisco to $5 and $2.

M. Barnetio, for many years a resident of Josephine county, has been committed to the insane asylum.

The following is the apportionment of taxes for Douglas county for the year 1878: Taxable property, $2,041,080; state taxes, $14,293 87; county taxes, $24,503 76; school taxes, $6,125 91; total taxes, $44,925 56.

A burglar entered the saloon of C. W. Savage at Jacksonville on Friday night and took $3 from the money drawer, and entering the bedroom where Mr. S's son was sleeping, robbed him of a fine watch and chain and a breastpin.

From the Union Sentinel: A report reaches us that the stage barn, ten horses, one coach and a large amount of harness were completely consumed by fire last Sunday night at Rattlesnake station. John Lemmons will be a heavy loser.

Four companies are now fishing between Parkersburg and the mouth of the Coquille river, and are catching the finest variety of white salmon. They take out on an average about 3,000 fish a day in the aggregate, with seine and gill net.

The annual conference of the M. E. church south has been holding its sessions at Roseburg during the present week. The following appointments have been made for Jacksonville district for the ensuing year: J. R. N. Bell, presiding elder, will remain at Roseburg; A. Hardison, Jacksonville; W. H. Klyte, Oakland; M. Stahl, Table Rock; no appointment made for Coquille.

The circuit court convenes at Pendleton on the 28th of this month. There is quite a large criminal docket, and the court will be one of the most important ever held in that county. Quite a large number of Indians are to be tried for murders committed during the last Indian war, among whom are those accused of the murder of George Coggans. Three are already held in prison on this charge.

The breakwater constructed at the mouth of the Coquille river last summer, under the superintendence of Capt. Parker, by subscriptions of citizens of that section, is having a beneficial tendency. Already the water is being forced toward the old channel, and it is thought that by extending the work the current will re-establish the channel of 1853. This would render navigation safe and comparatively easy.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Hon. Chas. Montgomery, of Colville, who it will be remembered was severely injured by a stage capsizing, is now rapidly recovering.

A Mr. Searight intends to purchase 12,000 or 15,000 head of cattle in the Walla Walla country during the winter, and will drive them east in the spring.

Mr. Northcutt, of Colfax, has discovered some large bones in his neighborhood and the Palouse Gazette thinks they are the remains of a human being.

Mr. C. C. Cram, of Penawawa, reports that that town is rapidly improving, and immigrants at the rate of 25 teams a day are crossing the river at that place.

The twenty-sixth annual convocation of the missionary jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington will meet in Trinity church, Portland, on Tuesday evening.

A strange disease has broken out among the cattle of Whidby Island. The animals are taken with shortness of breath and swelling about the nose and eyes; the swelled tongue protrudes when symptoms of suffocation ensue.

The Walla Walla fair shows a balance on the wrong side of the book. The fair for 1877 paid all expenses, and left a balance of $300 in the treasury. The fair of 1878 absorbed the balance of the previous year and left the society $306 in debt.

The Watchman of the 18th says: We learn that Mrs. Gen. Hancock, a niece of General Beauregard, is now in the city, poor and friendless. Her reason is supposed to be slightly deranged, and some fancied trouble caused her to leave her home. Her husband is now at Mount Idaho

MANAGEMENT OF STATE LANDS.

The bill offered by Mr. Townsend (H. B. No. 135) "for an act providing for the selection, location and sale of state lands, and the management and disposition of the proceeds arising therefrom," became a law. It was presented as a substitute for several bills previously offered, and was passed with only a few minor amendments. It makes many radical changes in the management of state lands; but we cannot say after considering it that we think they will all be fruitful of good results. The first section appoints the governor land commissioner for the state, and empowers him to locate all the lands to which the state is entitled under laws of the United States and otherwise. The second section makes it his duty to prepare accurate lists of such lands. These features are similar to those in the old law, only we do not find in the new act any provision authorizing the governor to employ an assistant in the selection and location of the lands. Section three authorizes and requires the governor, secretary of state and treasurer, as a board of commissioners, to sell the lands of the state which have been or may hereafter be selected, in such quantities as they may deem most advantageous to the state, not exceeding 320 acres to any settler, and not more than 160 acres to any person not a settler, at a price not exceeding $2 50 an acre for agricultural college lands, and not less than $2 an acre for all other lands. In this section swamp lands are not included; but by the following section the board is authorized and directed to sell swamp and overflowed lands as fast as the same shall be selected, in quantities not exceeding 320 acres to any one person, at a price not less than $1 an acre for swamp land, and not less than $2 for tide lands. Reservation is made in favor of the owner of any land abutting upon the Pacific ocean, or of any bay, harbor, inlet or watercourse, giving such person the right to purchase within one year from the passage of the act all tide or swamp lands in front of the lands so owned, to the amount of one half section to each owner.

We do not think these conditions as to swamp lands will give any great deal of satisfaction, or bring much revenue to the state. The idea of the act is to prevent rings from monopolizing the lands. But the fault found with the old act should be charged largely to the manner in which it was administered. Members of the ring were allowed to file on thousands of acres of land, and hold it without paying the portion of the purchase price required by law; and extravagant sums were dishonestly allowed to persons employed in the selection of the lands. Had the former law been strictly and honestly enforced there would not have been so much reason to complain. It is stock men, mostly, who want to buy swamp lands, and so small a tract as 320 acres will not be of much value to them. The upshot will be that they will use the lands without buying them. It is not probable that they will be sold largely to actual settlers, because this class of persons are not able as a general thing to reclaim them, and a large part of the lands are of such character that if drained they would no longer bring grass, and they lie at altitudes too great to bear cereal or root crops successfully. And moreover, where the lands are so situated that they can be drained and brought into profitable cultivation it will in most cases require capital to do it. Drainage can be effected only by a general system, through co-operation of many owners; and where the lands are held in small quantities by many owners the chances are much against such co-operation, with the capital necessary for the work.

If the state wants to make the most out of its swamp lands it should not be its concern to prevent purchasers from buying them in large quantities; but it should see that such lands as are bought, whether in tracts large or small, are paid for. This is the point that should be enforced. We do not anticipate any great revenues to the state from sale of these lands in the quantities allowed under the restrictions of this act. Popular as may seem to be the idea of holding these lands for purchasers, it will be found, we think, that, at least for some time to come, no great quantity of them will be wanted by purchasers of this class.

A section of this act provides for redemption of warrants heretofore issued by authority of the legislature, payable out of the swamp and tideland and five per cent funds. This is a proper provision. These warrants are made receivable at their face in payment for any lands, the proceeds of the sales of which would be applied under former acts to the payment of such warrants. It is provided, however, that only those issued prior to September 1, 1870, shall be so receivable during six months after the approval of this act, but after that time any of said warrants shall be so receivable.

Under the former act the swamp lands were "gobbled" in large quantities, and the state was swindled, mainly because the officials did not honestly do their duty. Under the present act the sales will be extremely slow and the proceeds trifling. But perhaps it is just as well that the lands should lie as they are for some years to come. The "gobbling" will be stopped, and that is worth a great deal.

We have the New York Tribune of the 7th, 8th and 9th October, with full copies of the Tilden cipher telegrams, and an elaborate account of the methods by which the key was discovered through which they were translated. It is a highly interesting description of a most ingenious discovery. It was [illegible] for their [illegible] we believe, who said that the [illegible] says: "Every [illegible] riddle that the subject * * * [illegible] out and he wrote in the title." T[illegible] story-telling ingenuity, For an internal [illegible] exemplify the remark. a portage railro[illegible] a railroad in [illegible] the real meaning of the road n the W[illegible] s by the Tribune is a further railroad in D[illegible] tion of the saying. It also Blue Mountai[illegible] 7th. For a [illegible] important observation made Study the [illegible] Jefferson, that private enterprise you driv[illegible] public agencies wherever it has an Lane [illegible] chance. Herbert Spencer gives as a conspicuous instance of the truth of this dictum, the fact that M. Littre has with fifteen years' hard labor made a far better French dictionary than the whole French academy has been able to make with a hundred years' labor of a hundred different eminent savans' help. But these Tribune revelations of corruption during the last presidential campaign, arrived at by deciphering the secret Tilden telegrams, compared with the long-winded nothingness which is the only result of the labors of the Potter committee, bent ostensibly on the same hunt after "fraud," [illegible] o less striking example.

[illegible] t of the last day's proceedings [illegible] was stated that "H rsch [illegible] section 16, which in- [illegible] for charitable pur- [illegible] unaccountable error. It should have read, "Hirsch moved to strike out section 15, which included all appropriations for deficiencies."

The Philadelphia Times says that what the Nationals really want is a fiat ballot. It would do them a great deal more service at this juncture than fiat money.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITAL.

SALEM, Oct. 20, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The closing hours of a legislative session are too hurried and informal to lay any claim to dignity, and yet they possess peculiar interest, for almost every member has some especial interest, or his friends and constituents have, in some bill that has passed one house and waits to have sentence passed in the other. No bill, under the constitution, can pass from one house to the other on the last day of the session, so on Friday all the senate could do was to act upon bills already in its possession from the house, and vice versa. Whatever bills remained for final action had, perforce, to be considered dead and let alone; there was no final resurrection for them. In the house a great many senate bills had accumulated. The motion to have a committee go over them and report those of greatest importance was not acted upon, and the demoralizing expedient was resorted to that bills should be taken up as called for, and twenty members would be on the floor at once clamorous for recognition; all order and system was abandoned. Many bills that passed one house were never heard of in the other, and cumber the pigeon holes to this day. Many bills that were perhaps deserving failed to pass when called up, because members would not vote for measures they had not time to understand. While, again, a number of bills undoubtedly passed one house because they were reported to have had careful consideration in the other, and members to a certain degree took their merits for granted.

From first to last there was no partisanship in the late legislature, except when it came to the election of senator and balloting for other state officers. There was very little attempt to obstruct investigation—less in the house than in the senate. The latter body contained more of the old, chronic Democracy, that was brought up on the shoulder-to-shoulder principle, and thought more of discipline than of reform, while the house contained more new material—men like Speaker Thompson—who asserted stoutly that there should be no shirking or evasion, but that facts should be facts, and corruption be exposed wherever it existed; also asserted the very sensible political doctrine that no party was responsible for corruption of an official, unless it endorsed it or attempted to cover it up. Thompson has made a good record, and so has Galloway, who was connected with the two most important investigating committees; and so have most of them on both sides.

We could naturally expect that a chronic, old-time Democrat—like Gates, of Wasco—would be an obstructionist of investigation, as he was continually, frequently introducing amendments to propositions looking that way, whose only object the house thought was to prevent thorough work. But the house never was blinded for a moment, but voted always for full and free development. There was new material in the legislature that showed progress. It was not so thoroughly identified with the past as to forget the future. New men were there who had a perception of the fact that if they or their party expected anything of the future they must clear their skirts of all complicity with corruption in the present. Even old Gen. Lane wrote down to compliment those who were urging investigation, telling them that if the party was to have any success in 1880, it must be secured by honest dealing in 1878. The old general would yet take the lead of the Oregon Democracy if his years had not mounted to fourscore, or near it.

In the senate were a few old stagers like Whiteaker, who didn't like to see a Democratic administration trailed in the dust; but Senator Cochran, of Lane, did not seem to be of the number. He was always found ready to expose corruption if it existed; and as the committee appointed to investigate is sure to be thorough and do justice to the state without wishing to do injustice to any individual, the people can now afford to withhold judgment until their presentation of facts is made.

The senate had more old politicians than the house. To that extent it was less amenable to reform ideas; for it seems impossible for a man who has been identified with politics for a generation past to set the guillotine to work at the expense of his old political associates. To become their executioner may be horribly unpleasant, but in the interest of public morals is none the less necessary. Major Lord, of Marion county, had the respect of the senate, and his Republicanism was no bar to his influence. Grim, Waldo and Lord were all respected and influential. I am told there was only one test vote of politics taken in the senate the whole session, and I can bear evidence that there was not one such vote taken in the house. A number of Republicans were clerks of committees, and I was myself offered—or at least told by the Democratic chairman that I could have the clerkship of the most important committee appointed during the session.

I discounted Democratic gallantry a little the other day when I told how Mr. Steeves was elected state librarian in preference to Miss Elnorah Simpson. Steeves had received the caucus nomination and was of course elected, and there was a touch of humor as well as strategy when Mr. Thompson placed Miss Simpson in nomination against him, and made the sentiment of gallantry impossible to our Democratic brethren. This legislature deserves credit for gallantry, nevertheless, in appointing several ladies enrolling and engrossing clerks. The ladies too, I think, were in every instance Republicans, which made the gallantry more conspicuous. It was a good example, and deserves to be followed in the future. It is pleasant to think that it was initiated by a Democratic legislature, and it was quite delightful to see lady reporters busy in the senate and to have lady clerks with cheerful faces lighting up the busy gloom of the enrolling and engrossing rooms. They did their work well, as well as gracefully, I am pleased to add. It is only fair that so much should be said for a Democratic legislature, and on the score of gallantry we won't seriously condemn them. Many of them must have regretted that the immutable decrees of King Caucus cut them off from further promoting Miss Simpson.

In the hurry and drive of the last weeks of the session your correspondent was obliged to trespass freely and frequently upon the kindness of members to—for instance—get at the substance of the bill and be able to tell what it meant to do, instead of giving its title, which seldom explained its objects. To many members, to the clerks, and especially to Speaker Thompson, I am under obligations for patient answers to all sorts of questions. Mr. Thompson (the speaker) was urbane enough, and prompt and rapid enough in transaction of business, to deserve and receive the commendation of all, and I do not remember to have heard an unkind word or a deprecatory criticism made at his expense during the session. He was eminently impartial, and his first legislative experience has earned him a good record.

D. P. Thompson, of Portland, was perhaps the most shrewd and expert member of the house. He could get on his feet quicker than anybody, and always disposed of the subject in hand in a few brief words and so never wear ed the house.

It was remarkable to see what a supply of good talkers there were in the house. Many of the farmers there could get up and express themselves as well as the lawyers, and generally better, because they were more direct and brief in argument. The grange is teaching the farmers of the United States to talk well, and gives them a knowledge of parliamentary law that is a great aid to their influence and capacity as legislators.

The act reducing legal interest to 8 per cent and lawful rates on special contracts to 10 per cent, would probably have passed if a square vote could have been had. It received 30 votes to 13—17 being absent from the house, and it was too late in the session to call it again.

The narrow gauge railroad bond act, requiring corporations making deposits in the state treasury to purchase such bonds instead of government securities, got smothered somewhere, and could hardly have expected the approval of the governor if it had passed.

The amendment to the libel law passed both houses unanimously under suspension of the rules. It goes to the root of the matter in a few words, simply adding to the section on that subject in the statute a clause that any publication made to injure, defame or maliciously annoy any family or person shall come within the provisions of the law, and requiring the circuit judge to read the law to the grand jury at every term of court, and the prosecuting attorney to bring suit in every case that comes to his knowledge, whether the party injured complains of the offense or not. The bill, as prepared, received the approval of all respectable journalists at the capital, about 25 in number, and it is to be hoped that with this wholesome restriction, honorable journalism will command unqualified respect, and the late unanimous action of the press association shows a high minded intention in our leading journalists.

The bill to tax mortgages, intended to apply to the loans made by foreign corporations doing business in Oregon, did not pass. Those who were aimed at say its only effect would have been to drive them from this state, to do business where they would not be subject to such taxation.

It would not be uninteresting to the public to go over the legislation that was perfected and give a sketch of each measure of a general character, to show wherein the old law has been amended, or how new legislation has affected the state. I cannot, of course, particularize, from memory, the various effects produced by the bills passed.

With the close of the session legislators, journalists and the omnipresent lobby are relegated back to the quiet duties of private life, or at least of ordinary life. It may be claimed that there was no preeminent ability manifested by any member. Perhaps there was not, but there was something far better. There was no vital measure, no political exigency or party crises to call out passionate eloquence. The life of the country was not at stake. The best interests of society were in a measure involved, however, and the honor of the state—its affiliation with common honesty, these were constantly at issue, and every good citizen must rejoice to see that in these respects the claims of party have not interfered with public morality and the maintenance of principle. The time has arrived when men of all parties are united in the chief matters that interest the state, and the people have nothing to fear so long as this continues.

Governor Thayer has shown firmness, in the smallest matters, to interpret the constitution for himself and object to all inconsistent legislation. His vetoes were almost unanimously sustained, and without respect to party there is hope and confidence that he will administer the affairs of state with wisdom and economy.

In my abstract of the second report of the investigating committee, made hurriedly at a late hour at night, I did a great injustice. The report said that Gov. Chadwick was allowed $200 fee as attorney, and the voucher was signed by Gov. Grover, and I wrote that it was signed by Gov. Chadwick, making that gentleman sign his own voucher, which was not only incorrect, but, under the circumstances, a great injustice.

CALIFORNIA SILK

Manufacturing Company,
ROBERT R. YATES, Agent,
585 Market st., cor. Second, San Francisco.

MESSRS. WM. MACDONALD & CO HAVING retired from the Sales Agency of this Company, the business will hereafter be conducted in the name of the CALIFORNIA SILK MANUFACTURING COMPANY, on the same premises as above named. Mr. ROBERT R. YATES, late with Messrs. Murphy, Grant & Co., will act as Agent.

New Machinery has been added to our factory, and our stock on sale has been and will be very much enlarged.

Our Standard Goods are now ranked fully equal to the best goods made in the United States, and are far superior to the average imported. We also make the cheaper grades to meet the demand for such goods.

Having a Factory at South San Francisco always at work, and unlimited facilities, we are able to keep our stock in store always fully assorted, and can furnish any silk required at short notice, from stock or made to order. This gives us great advantage over importers in supplying customers with any desired color or kind of Silk in the line of Machine Twist, Embroidery, Fringe, Tram and Sewing Silks. Dealers buying of us need to carry but small stocks, thus saving interest and shop wear on goods.

We absolutely Guarantee our Standard Goods to be equal to the best and most celebrated silks made, and the general favor with which they are now regarded by consumers and dealers, enabling as we do to nearly the entire trade, proves our assertion to be true, and should any goods be found not as guaranteed we will willingly take them back.

Attention is drawn to the fact that besides our regular standard goods, we have made, to meet a demand for cheap grades, a second quality which is sometimes mistaken for the former. We shall in future use different brands for the lower qualities, though some time may elapse before a complete substitution of names can be made. Lists of our products with prices can be obtained by mail.

Our manufacturing business has been built up with much labor and sacrifice during the last seven years, and after overcoming great vicissitudes, has achieved complete success as a California Industry.

Employing as we do nearly One Hundred American and European Women and Girls, Giving the best of Silks made at the lowest prices for corresponding grades, and affording better facilities in stock variety for selection than any other Silk Agency, we feel that we are entitled to the patronage and preference of all who desire to aid HOME INDUSTRY.

CLOTHING.

The Daily Oregonian.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 22, 1878.

CITY.

HANDEL AND HAYDN SOCIETY.—This society will hold their first rehearsal in their new hall, First street, between Morrison and Yamhill, to-night at half past seven The seats which are quite elegant will be thrown open to members of the society as early as 7 o'clock. The Amateur Musical Society will also occupy this hall We most heartily congratulate both societies on their change to larger and more satisfactory quarters. A full attendance is earnestly desired, as it is important all those intending to join on the next concert should be present at the preliminary rehearsals of the 'Creation."

BODY RECOVERED.—About 9 o'clock yesterday forenoon the body of William Phillips the unfortunate engineer on the pile driver who fell overboard and was drowned Saturday evening was recovered. The remains were found near the foot of Morrison street, just below where the driver was moored Coroner Cooke was notified, who, after causing the body to be moved to the morgue, summoned a jury and proceeded to hold an inquest. After examining several jurors the jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. The body was buried yesterday

DANGEROUSLY ILL.—The many friends of Mr Frank Gilbert will be pained to learn that he is at present lying at his home in [illegible] dangerously ill with fever. Mr Gilbert has been employed for over a year in the O. S. N. Co's office in this city, and by his strict attention to business and uniform courtesy the young gentleman has made a host of friends, and is held in high esteem by his employers.

THE CASCADE CANAL.—The contract for the construction of the Cascade canal was signed and completed by Colonel Wilson on Saturday October 19th, and the contractor, Mr [illegible], has left Portland with Mr. Bolton to commence preparations for the work.

COL. GILLESPIE IN CHARGE.—Colonel John M. Wilson transferred the charge of this engineering district to Col. Geo L Gillespie to-day. Col. Wilson will leave for Washington on the next trip of the Oregon, probably the 28th or 29th.

A TRUE BILL.—The grand jury in the case of Thomas Strickland, found a bill of assault, armed with a dangerous weapon. Bail fixed at $350, Messrs. W. W. Spaulding, E F. [illegible] and P. Mays being bondsmen.

STEAMERS.—The steamer Ancon arrived at San Francisco yesterday from Portland. The steamer Oregon will sail from San Francisco for Portland to-day, with freight and passengers.

OREGON'S COMMISSIONER.

Hon. H. W. Corbett has received the following letter from Hon. R. C. McCormick, U S commissioner at the Paris Exposition

PARIS, Aug 30, 1878.

My Dear Sir: As you wrote me regarding the State commissioner, Mr. Van Beurden, I take pleasure, now that he is about to leave Paris, in testifying to the fidelity and intelligence with which he has represented the interests of your state. No commissioner has been more zealous, and the fact that the Oregon exhibitors have been so well recognized by the juries is very largely due to Mr Van Beurden's personal attention.

With the renewal of my regards I am truly,
R. C. McCORMICK,
Hon. H. W. CORBETT,

Mr. Van Beurden incurred expenses in his own behalf of the Oregon exhibition at Paris, for which it would be right that he be reimbursed. Oregon's exhibit was very creditable, and he did a great deal to attract attention to it and to the resources of our state. Among other expenses he printed pamphlets relating to Oregon in several languages, and distributed them widely. It will be seen that Commissioner McCormick, in the above letter, speaks highly of his efforts. We call attention to the justice of assisting him to bear the expense incurred.

BETHEL SERVICES.

A reunion in the form of Bethel exercises held on board the ship City of Perth on Sabbath calls for more than a passing notice. The Chaplain being [illegible] the dedication of the first Bethel for all [illegible] of God, at Old Tacoma, on Puget Sound, the conduct of the meeting devolved on [illegible], who offered the opening prayer and [illegible]. This gospel meeting, so called, was then [illegible] improved by the laity—brethern and [illegible]. Excellent singing and experience testimonies occupied the rest of this interesting hour. Among the rest, one seaman, converted since coming to Portland, an old "man o'-wars man," who was at the bombarding of Sevastopol, arose and told of his peace of mind and joy in the Lord. Many of these seamen who listened to the appeals of Mr. Stubbs, Mrs. Wilson, Father Lichtenthaler and others were led to the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. [illegible] workers, and while there, at the second [illegible] raised their hands for prayer, and one was [illegible] in the evening service, to Dr. Lindsley's church, his preference being for that church, having been trained in some good Presbyterian house. Thus these meetings co-operate with and [illegible] strangers to our city churches and other religious and temperance meetings. Let us implore for these Bethel services the blessing of heaven.
A FRIEND TO THE BETHEL

AMUSEMENTS.

THE DRAMATIC SEASON.—Mrs. Scott Siddons left Astoria yesterday morning and will arrive here this evening "Romeo and Juliet" will be rehearsed this evening at 7 o'clock at New Market Theater. This beautiful play will be produced Tuesday and Thursday evenings, with Mrs Siddons as "Juliet," and Clara Jean Walters as Romeo' supported by a full company. Every attention will be bestowed on the details of stage sets costumes, etc. The piece will be carefully rehearsed and there is every reason to predict that it be presented in an elaborate manner and the entire satisfaction of the most critical audience. Those who have not secured seats should not fail to do so at once for a large number have already been sold. They can be procured at Morse's.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.

OPENING NIGHT—A TRIUMPH FOR PORTLAND—FINE DISPLAY OF MECHANISM AND FINE ARTS—AN INSTITUTION WORTHY OF PATRONAGE

According to announcement the Mechanics' Fair opened under very favorable auspices The doors were opened at 7.30 and visitors admitted. All who entered were surprised at the scene presented, and with the time and means at the command of the management the general conclusion was that they had done well The building has been described heretofore, and it is only necessary to say that it has been fitted up in the best possible manner for the purposes of the exhibition There are

FOUR MAIN PROMENADES

For visitors, from which the best possible view of the articles on exhibition can be most conveniently secured Two of these promenades are on the first floor and two on the second. Access to the latter is gained by a single stairway at the rear The upper story is not yet entirely filled, but to-day will witness continued activity in the work of filling it up, so that by night the display will be greatly enhanced. The various sewing machine companies, with their finest machines and the most beautiful samples of work done on them, occupy a part of the center of the lower floor, in which are also handsome musical instruments, show cases filled with jewelry, silverware, etc In the center of this floor are also a most beautiful display of house plants, evergreens and shrubbery, and a well arranged lot of wooden and willow ware, and brooms, millinery, guns, hats, etc

On the right of the lower floor, an apartment for ladies are fine displays of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture, and cook and parlor stoves. On the left are furniture, works in marble, billiard tables, soap, coffee, spices, etc

The second floor or galleries contain paintings, pictures, furniture, saddlery, some magnificent wooden goods, wagon timbers and other articles, but few of which have yet been arranged properly for exhibition A full day at least will be required to perfect this part of the display, and we have no doubt that by this evening the entire inside of the building will be fitted up and adorned with the productions of art and mechanism, and that the exhibition will be the most attractive of the kind ever presented in the state. We have not particularized in this notice owing to the unfinished arrangement on part of several of the leading exhibits For the time allowed in which to make preparations, the display is really much better than could have been expected. Last night it did not show so well as the management might have wished, but another day's work will really make the place delightful, beautiful and highly interesting. Visitors will be admitted from 10 A M. till 5 P M, and in the evening from half-past 7 to 10 o'clock

Tickets can be purchased at Morse's business place The price of season tickets has been fixed at $2, single admission 50 cents. While the fair lasts, no more pleasant or instructive place in which to spend a few hours can be found in the city. Nor can one see all the beauties presented at a single visit, many of them will bear study for more than one evening. The people owe this effort to establish an institution of this kind in Portland a liberal encouragement, but the exhibition is worth more than the sum asked for admission, and we have no doubt the building will be thronged while the fair lasts.

INTERESTING TO LADIES.—Dickey's "Creme de Lis" has now been before the public for ten years, during which time this beautiful preparation has met with the highest approval at the hands of the fair sex—being as all who have used it will verify, the only perfect preparation of its kind Every ingredient entering the composition of Dickey's 'Creme de Lis" is subjected to the most rigid test of modern chemistry, to insure the uniformity and purity of its combination, and neither time nor expense have been spared to make it perfect—it being well known the public will appreciate and support a truly meritorious article Several new beautifiers under various names, have lately started into existence, but Dickey's 'Creme de Lis" has no competition in merit. Sold by all druggists.

CAPTURE OF JOHNSON.

In the Los Angeles Herald of Oct. 12th, we find the following particulars of the arrest of James Johnson

"Yesterday afternoon Chief Harris arrested a suspicious character at the Kansas City Hotel, opposite the new depot, whom he suspected to be one of the three men who robbed O Shea's pawnbroker's store at Portland, Oregon, in August last. The man when first approached by Harris gave the name of Harry Howard, and when arrested exhibited some reluctance to accompany him Harris at once handcuffed him and brought him down town Harris telegraphed the arrest to the chief of police of Portland, who last night answered the dispatch telling Harris that if the prisoner was the right man he would find the letters 'F. T' on his left leg On examination the letters were found as described Johnson was then committed to jail to await a requisition from the governor of Oregon Our readers will remember that the robbery was executed with great boldness, the thieves entering O Shea's store about 9 o'clock in the morning, and after felling the proprietor with a slungshot, locked the door, packed up the jewelry and valuables and escaped by the rear entrance, passing through a dry goods store to the street. A hue and cry was at once raised, and in the pursuit one of the robbers firing on one of his pursuers, shot and killed a small boy. Two of the party were arrested near Portland, but the third escaped and no clew could be discovered as to his whereabouts until his capture by our chief of police yesterday. Johnson states that he walked nearly all the way from Portland to this city, avoiding all large towns on the way. His return will be accomplished at the cost of much less personal fatigue"

CALIFORNIA ROOT TEA.

The Reliable

KIDNEYS.

[illegible] and strengthening action on these organs is different to and more desirable than that of any article heretofore in use, for indigestion, biliousness, etc., as a tonic, anti-malarial, etc., it is unequaled, while in chronic complaints it gives relief when all other remedies fail, and is frankly acknowledged to be the only cure for many chronic complaints of a complicated nature.

CATARRH.

The success of the CALIFORNIA ROOT TEA in curing Catarrh is proverbial and surprises many who do not understand the nature of this terrible disease, which in most cases can be permanently cured only through the blood by a thorough course of this vegetable remedy, regarded to be the only thorough and permanent blood cleanser known, a course of it completely eradicating for all time the most virulent types of blood and skin diseases, rheumatism etc. All who use it leading druggists and physicians gladly attest its great sterling worth.

Sold in its truly vegetable form in packets at $1; each packet makes a quart of rich balsam, of which the dose is two spoonsful three times daily, making its cost much less than other medicines. Make like tea or put in wine etc: pleasant to take when nicely sweetened. Sold by druggists and country merchants. N. B.—Until further notice it will be sent by express or mail to any address on receipt of Express or Postoffice order, one packet $1 or six for $5 00.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world-wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.

TRUST INVESTMENT COMPANY

OF SCOTLAND.

Office, 48 First street, Portland.

Mortgage Loans at Ten per cent. on Real Estate Security only.

MONEY TO LOAN AT ALL TIMES FOR periods of three to five years, repayable by annual installments or in one sum, just as the borrower may prefer when he takes the Loan.

Persons desiring to build their own Homes in Portland, or Farmers wishing to improve their Farms and repay the cost of their improvements by half-yearly or annual payments (instead of paying away rents) are recommended to try the Trust Company's Installment (Building) Plan.

Installment Plan, 10 per cent.

$154 every half-year for four years wipes off every $1,000 borrowed, interest included. $129 50 every half-year for five years wipes off every $1,000 borrowed, interest included. In no instance and under no circumstances will the company loan enough money to induce borrowers to allow a foreclosure.
